FOIAb3b

Sanitized - Approved For Release :

YEM, YORK YOURNAL AMERICAN

MAR 2 1964

RED SPYING OLD STORY TO FEIGUALI

CPYRGHT

Russian spying is an old, old story to Ohio's Rep. Michael A. Feighan. The case of Polish-born Soviet spy Michal Goleniewski is only the latest to draw the attention of the powerful Cleveland Democrat.

He's been hard on the trail of Russian infiltration into the Free World nations for the last nine of his 21 years in Congress.

URGED PROBE IN '55

In 1955 he called for an investigation into American government plans to put up $500,000,000 to help Soviet agents, in the guise of "White Russians," to enter some 20 free nations without any sepurity check.

Noting that the White Russians carried Soviet passports, he said:

"The Kremlin never allows in enemy to make use of U.S.S.R. passport."

Concern about America's ole in international affairs, and especially about the cold war" with Russia, has been a hallmark of Mr. Feiglan's career.

Cleveland Democrat.

In fact, it was the principal issue he raised in 1942 when

In fact, it was the principal issue he raised in 1942 when he trounced veteran Rep. M. L. Sweeney to win the Democratic primary and went on to capture his seat, from the downtown slum wards of Cleveland.

Now 59, he is married to the former Florence Matthews and the father of two children, William M. and Feur Feighan. He is a graduate of Princeton and Harvard Law School.

His pride in his work as a fighter against international Communism is emphasized in the brief biographical sketches submitted to the Congressional Directory. Of all the many awards he has received during an active public career, it lists only one, the "Viligant Patriot Honor Plaque" of the Allmannana ya manana m

REP. M. FEIGHAN

Arch Foe of Subversives

American Conference to Combat Communism. He won that twict, once in 1959 and again last year.